IXD PROJECTS

Monet's Garden- Physical Rhythm Game (Academic)
Sheridan College Apr 2026

- Designed and built a rhythm game inspired by Monet's garden, using Makey Makey and p5.js with a handmade control board of wooden keys, foil and fabric flowers.
- Coded real-time feedback for each hit (sound, petal bursts, golden ripples) and a background whose colours drift like the seasons as the combo grows.
- Prototyped, play-tested and refined the physical controls and on-screen visuals together.

Sound-Reactive Web Experience (Academic)
Sheridan College Mar 2026

- Built a four-page p5.js website that turns music and live microphone input into moving geometry: a spectrum, a radial pulse and 3D cubes
- Designed a voice-driven page where users place shapes and their voice makes them breathe and change
- Researched media artists Bill Viola and Granular-Synthesis to guide the use of loops, particles and empty space

Designer's Website (Academic)
Sheridan College Apr 2025

- Researched the Swiss type designer Adrian Frutiger and analysed the Frutiger typeface and the Charles de Gaulle Airport signage system, with sources cited in MLA.
- Designed and coded a multi-section website in HTML and CSS, embedding a web font through @font-face.
- Focused on typographic hierarchy, navigation and a clear interface that reflects Frutiger's idea of clarity.

Panda Café Brand Identity Sheridan College

Nov 2024

- Created an original logo for a fictional panda-themed café, whose outline reads as both a panda and a coffee cup
- Produced vertical and horizontal lockups at three sizes in Adobe Illustrator
- Wrote a 19-page identity specification in InDesign covering proportions, clear space, CMYK/RGB/Hex colours, typography, and uses on signage, uniforms, vehicles and packaging

Art Discovery Club Website (Academic) Sheridan College

Oct 2024

- Wrote a project synopsis and created three user personas, a site map and a user flow for an online student art club
- Designed and built a five-section website (Home, Works Show, Activities, Resources, About Us) in HTML, CSS and JavaScript
